

Odds on how much weight she'll gain?

Bodog.com, the same online gaming operation that gives 11-2 odds that Kathy Griffin will administer the next Andy Dick celebrity beat-down, is also making details of Nicole Richie's unborn child with Good Charlotte's Joel Madden fodder for your gaming entertainment.

Celebrity-minded thrill seekers can bet on the child's name (Britney is 11-1), eye color at birth and the baby's gender, as well as which glossy famous-person-friendly magazine will feature the newborn on its cover, possibly under the headline "How diet and exercise helped me take 3 pounds off my birth weight."
